

Administration of Barack H. Obama, 2010

Statement on Senator Harry Reid

January 9, 2010

Harry Reid called me today and apologized for an unfortunate comment reported today. I accepted Harry's apology without question because I've known him for years, I've seen the passionate leadership he's shown on issues of social justice, and I know what's in his heart. As far as I am concerned, the book is closed.
